MEDIA ADVISORY

Community Resource Fest set for Saturday, April 1

Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II encourages area residents to attend the “It’s a Spring Thing” Community Resource Fest happening this Saturday, April 1 from 1 – 4 p.m. at Embassy Center MKE, 3725 N. Sherman Blvd.

“This resource fest on Saturday will provide a great opportunity to have fun, bond with neighbors and learn about specific community programming and resources as well,” Alderman Stamper said. “I strongly encourage residents to stop and see what this event is all about.”

The event, hosted by Dream Team United MKE, Embassy Center MKE, and New Hope Youth & Family Services, will include a variety of community-based organizations that will be in attendance to provide information and resources, as well as hair braiding and free haircuts, a DJ, a free grocery distribution, and a variety of giveaways and family-friendly activities.
